Housing crisis for town's young people

AN ENTIRE generation is being priced out of Bridport because of a housing crisis that "threatens the fabric of society", according to a new report.

The paper calls for urgent action to address the critical shortage of low-cost homes in the town. Its author, local campaigner Roy Mathison, has written to senior government figures as well as local councillors urging them to take a fresh approach to the housing problem.

He hopes to rally support across the community and set up a housing panel to help deliver cheaper homes and prevent an "exodus" of young people.

"Bridport is losing a generation of its population because of its housing crisis - that is completely wrong," said Mr Mathison.

"Younger people are leaving Bridport because higher London salaries enable them to get on the housing ladder there.

"These rural market towns represent one of the most treasured sectors of England's heritage. Their structures, their cultures and their communities must be protected by those who carry that respon-

In his report. Mr Mathison, who is also playing a part in Bridport's 'Vision 2030' planning project, warns that purpose-built employment sites like the business park at Gore Cross are required to encourage trade in the area. And he also calls for a commitment to low-cost housing across the town.

Mr Hodges, 55, also runs the Saturday Morning Football sessions in Uplyme, encouraging youngsters to stay active and develop a passion for the beautiful game.

WHAT'S the aim of Saturday Morning Football in Uplyme?

The aim is to encourage children and young people to come along and try football in a friendly, noncompetitive environment, and to help people make friends.

WHERE is it held?

On Uplyme playing field from 9am to 10.15am every Saturday from September to May. We play in Woodroffe Sports Hall from January to March. We started going there when the field was badly flooded and we couldn't play for several weeks. It helps to guarantee football during the wet, winter months, and the kids love the speed of 5-a-side

HOW did you get involved with the Saturday Morning Football programme?

It was started about 17 years ago by Uplyme Church as a spin off from their "Friday Club" that was held in the village hall. A group of lads wanted to play football so they used to turn up for a kick-about on a Saturday morning. I got involved when my boys started wanting to play and as we attend Uplyme Church it was a natural thing to do.

HOW is it funded?

Purely by donation. We don't charge to come along on Saturday mornings, it's a service to the community of Uplyme run by the church. The only time we ask for a small donation is when we move into Woodroffe Sports Hall for the winter, as we have to pay to hire it. The equipment is provided by the leaders and Uplyme Church. We have been very lucky in the past two years, with some generous donations from the community. People obviously see it as a blessing to the village.

IS there an age limit for the children attend-

Well, it is aimed at 5-11 year olds, but we have children from about four years to lads of about 15 coming along. Everybody seems to get something out of it; we even have children from Chard who come along. We all warm up together and then split up into age/ability groups and play some football. Every now and again we mix everybody up and it's great to see the older lads helping and encouraging the youngsters.

oped?

I started off just helping out on the odd occasion, however, as the years have gone by I took over the running of it. I have to ensure we have all the records and checks up to date, the risk assessments are done and we have first aid cover while we are playing. From being just a bunch of lads and a church leader turning up on a Saturday morning, we now have to be properly organised, although we are still the same at the core.

WHAT gives you the motivation to get out of bed on a Saturday morning?

I think it's just the enthusiasm I encounter from the children that come along. They are desperate to join in and play some football. The parents often arrive all bleary eyed at 8.50am, saying that their child has been up since 6am with their football boots on askina if it's time to go yet!

We've had lots of kids go on to play for local teams, and a few that have been on the books of professional clubs. They all started with two left feet kick-

WHAT do you try to instil in the children?

It's all about trying to be inclusive. It doesn't matter if you can't play or if you are blessed with great skill, being part of a group that values where you are is very important. I think the church background to the group leaders helps us to ensure we keep a "love thy neighbour" approach to what is happening. Everybody has something to offer.

YOU also run a business in Lyme Regis?

Yes, my wife and I own and run Pinhay House Care Home. We've been there for the past 27 years. Making space to do the football and other things in a "24 hour a day" business has been challenging, but I feel we manage it quite well.

WHAT do you do in your spare time?

I've been a member of Uplyme Church for 25 years and I lead the services there once a month. I'm on the Deanery Synod and the Diocesan synod as the churches representative for the parish and the vicar's representative on the Bestic Trust that is progressing the building of the new school in Uplyme. Last year I helped set up, and now help run Seaton Memory Café for those in the local community who need help and support. It's been going a year now,

'Bizarre' plan to redraw electoral boundaries

redraw Bridport's electoral boundaries.

Members of the town council described the proposals as "appalling" and "ridiculous", warning that local elections could be made even more complicated for voters.

Under the plans, put forward by the Local Government Boundary Commission, the Bridport county council ward would be split into two sides – north and south. Two elected members - instead of one - would represent Bridport on Dorset County Council, but they would cover a huge area stretching far beyond the town itself.

The north ward councillor, for example, would be responsible for communities as far away as Hooke to the north and Compton Valence to the

Meanwhile, nearby villages Symondsbury and Eype would fall under the watch of a Marshwood Vale councillor. The commission says the changes will help to ensure each county councillor represents roughly the same number of voters. But civic leaders have criticised the plans, which they warn could confuse voters. "This is being pushed through on the quiet and think it's absolutely appalling," said Councillor

"It's going to destroy the integrity of Bridport we should start a major campaign to stop this from happening."

Councillor Dave Rickard said he was concerned that West Dorset's other large towns - Dorchester, Weymouth and Sherborne – would have distinct electoral wards, but that Bridport's boundaries would be spread far more widely.

And fellow councillors warned that the proposed changes could cause problems at polling

"The confusion at the last elections was ridiculous," said Councillor Keith Dav.

"I personally think somebody with some power should be made to come down here and drive around these places to see what rubbish they

Town Mayor Sandra Brown added: "For Bridport North to include places like Toller Porcorum and Wynford Eagle is crazy - their postcode isn't Bridport, it's Dorchester, It's not sensible."

The commission is consulting on its proposals until July 6th before producing final recommen-

"This means that each councillor represents a similar number of people so that everyone's vote in council elections is worth roughly the same regardless of where you live.

"We also want to ensure that our proposals reflect the interests and identities of local communities across the district and that the pattern of wards can help the council deliver effective local government to local people."

and businesses across the county - including frustrated residents in Uploders, near Bridport - will be connected to superfast broadband under the latest rollout plans, it has been announced.

But villagers, many of whom took their campaign to the steps of county hall in Dorchester earlier this year, will have to wait until 2018 before the high-speed service reaches them.

Superfast Dorset - a partnership between the government, local councils and BT - has announced a new £3million investment to extend the rollout programme to more rural communities.

Funding has been set aside to bring villagers in Uploders up to speed within the next three years, with additional cash also outlined to help connect the Marshwood Vale.

Local councils and the government's broadband delivery programme, BDUK, are each ploughing £1.3million more into the project, while BT will invest a further £400,000

Bill Murphy, BT's managing director for 'next generation access', said: "This is another very important step forward for a successful partnership, which is playing a major role in the future prosperity and economic success of Dorset."

Councillor Jamieson, Dorset County Council's portfolio holder for the economy, added: "Thousands of people across rural Dorset have already ordered fibre broadband and are finding their lives transformed because they can connect with friends, family, jobs, services and training no matter how remote their homes.

"Businesses are learning to make the most of the new technology to reach more customers and work in new

"Further embracing fibre technology can only be good for Dorset's businesses and tourism."

Campaigners in Uploders set up a campaign group in February calling for action to bring the high-speed

They warned that the long-term future of the village would be at risk without proper investment in superfast broadband.

A statement issued by Dorset County Council last week confirmed that the new agreement "will bring fibre to about 50 Dorset communities by early 2018, including ... Uploders".

Project leaders say the scheme has now connected more than 40,000 homes and businesses to faster and more reliable broadband.

Bridport's next generation being priced out of housing market

Tom Glover, spokesman for local campaign group Future Bridport, also warned that young people are being forced to move away from the town.

He said: "People who grow up and build their lives in Bridport have no option but to leave and that needs to be addressed immediately.

"Bridport is such a vibrant and attractive place to live, due partly to the diversity of the people in the town. If it iust becomes a haven for second homeowners and retirees then it will lose that. There needs to be a real effort made to build homes that local hardworking people can realistically look to buy." Bridport councillor Ros Kayes said West Dorset District Council "completely failed" to develop affordable homes in the town and that urgent action was required.

"We need, as a new council, to shape the market and work more proactively with developers and housing associations to encourage a wide range of housing options. That means putting up some money to support development and providing the housing that local authorities need.

"We can only do that by working closely with neighbourhood planning teams and local people who are keen to develop affordable options.

"I am hoping that a really active affordable housing group will come out of Mr Mathison's excellent work."

Bridport's neighbourhood plan steering group, 'Vision 2030', is currently carrying out an extensive consultation with residents

The group aims to produce a blueprint for the future development of the town, so local people can take back more control of the planning system.

Phyllida Culpin, chairman of 'Vision 2030', said: "All the views and comments submitted, including Roy Mathison's paper, will be looked at by the steering group and by the working groups that are to be established to consider specific issues, such as housing.

"We look forward to working with Roy and other people who, through the working groups, would like to get involved in the neighbourhood process.

Big turnout for Public First's petition signing

UNPRECEDENTED numbers of the public descended on the Public First Group's petition stand in Dorchester on Saturday.

Organiser John Grantham said: "We got some small slips of paper out to some homes on Thursday night and Friday outlining the signing opportunity, and were utterly astonished and delighted to be besieged with the number of people making their way specifically to us to sign the petition - this despite the fact that many Durnovarians had already signed earlier this year.

"We had no less than 709 signatures on the day, with name and address details, between 9.30am to just after 3pm.

"At times we had people queuing as there wasn't enough room at the table. Most people said they had come because of the leaflet, and the discovery for many that West Dorset was run by a Cabinet system led by seven people; also that not one of the Cabinet was one of the nine Dorchester councillors elected to West Dorset.

"Many said they now understood how the 93 per cent Dorchester town poll vote against the offices had been ignored by WDDC and how the county town had been blighted by the huge council offices placed on Charles St South car

"Whilst we may have heard half-a-dozen dissenting voices in favour of the cabinet system, on the basis that decisions could be faster, there were over 700 signatures in favour of the petition requiring a referendum to be held in order to return to the committee system to give an improvement in democracy.

"People derided party politics in council matters and were also uneasy that the only political party represented on the cabinet got just 45 per cent of all West Dorset votes and a small fraction of this in Dorchester, with many calling for proportional representation nationally."

This Saturday (June 27th) there is a further petition session in Bridport, where an extra table will

"There has been a massive awakening among people that there is at last something they can do to help," says John Grantham.

"Public First's role is to ensure the petition is valid so it can be verified and that everyone in West Dorset learns that WDDC is run by a cabinet system where the four main towns - Dorchester, Bridport, Sherborne and Lyme Regis - are represented by 19 of the elected 42 councillors, but that not one of these is in the cabinet!

"We can't change the election result, but we can require, through the ballot box in a future referendum, that a committee system, removing the cabinet governance and allowing more influence, inputs, reason and debate to spread to all 42 councillors, can be re-instated.

"We plan to produce and distribute notes to homes in Bridport before Saturday, and would welcome any member(s) of the public keen to help distribute to phone 07552 430214 to say what street(s) they can cover and in what part of

"There is no doubt this petition is awakening interest in the public to the thought that they can affect events if they can fully understand the issues and be listened to.

"We could not expect a repeat of Dorchester's numbers - as many people in Bridport have already signed – but Saturday is 'Bridport's Big Signings Day' and let's see... we're opening at 8.30am and stay open till 4pm."

through Chideock and finally finishing at Symondsbury School.

The walk celebrated Rebecca's life and her bravery, whilst also raising funds for two local causes - The Fortuneswell Cancer Trust in Dorchester and Symondsbury School, where Rebecca's two son's Rowan and Joseph attend.

The walkers were dressed from head to toe in purple, Refavourite colour, and found innovative ways to wear the colour, berets, floral hats, trainers, finger nail and even some walkers donned custom made Lilac T-shirts with the message "This one's for Bec".

Victoria Upton, one of the walks organisers, said:

"We were overwhelmed at how many people turned up, and thanks to so many people we raised funds way beyond expectation. It was an amazing atmosphere."

Sponsorship and donations are still coming in but early estimates from the walks organisers predict that the walk raised around £5,000 including £1,700 raised by Suzie Turner from the Riverside Restaurant where Rebecca used to work.

Tributes were paid and Rebecca's father Robert Harris expressed his thanks to all involved, saving:

"Becca would have laughed at all of us today - as you know she was a fun girl! She, would, however, have been very proud of what we have achieved and I thank everybody for taking part."

Donations and Sponsorship can be made online until the end of June at www.justgiv ing.com/rebeccaharris memorialwalk, cheques (made payable to Fortuneswell Cancer Trust) or cash can be sent to Symondsbury School or handed in at the school office during school hours.

Parents have their say on plans for a multi-academy trust

PARENTS, teachers, governors and community leaders have all expressed their views on plans for four local schools to form a multi-academy trust.

A consultation evening was held last week to examine the proposals, which would see the Bridport, Burton Bradstock and St Mary's Primary Schools working more closely with the Sir John Colfox Academy.

Headteachers from the four schools outlined their vision for the future, which was followed by a question and answer session.

Julian Piper, chair of governors at Burton Bradstock Primary School, said: "The opportunity to gather a number of parents from the Bridport area to discuss the best possible education opportunities for local children and young people doesn't come up very often.

"We were delighted to have such a useful and lively conversation with parents, governors and other local representatives as we continue to shape the detail of the proposed multi-academy trust."

The evening was an opportunity for parents to express concerns, which included future finances and the role of the governors.

Brian Shelley, chair of governors at St Mary's Primary School, said: "I found the consultation evening both stimulating and thought-provoking.

"The questions asked will help us refine our thinking as we journey towards the foundation of our multi-academy trust."

The four schools involved have now been approved by the Department for Education and money has been released – £25,000 per school – to allow them to continue to develop their vision.

Martin Stones, chair of governors at the Colfox Academy, said: "We believe a multi-academy trust could be a real benefit for the young people of the area.

"But we will be thinking long and hard about the issues and refining our proposals.

"It was a delight to have such an open and honest conversation with everybody and it was really pleasing to see how much the parents value what we do and want to be involved in our future plans."

Village celebrates Magna Carta with annual sports day

RESIDENTS of Walditch came together at the weekend to celebrate the village's annual summer event of sports day games.

This year, organisers incorporated the children's sports day with a Magna Carta theme to celebrate the 800th anniversary of the historic charter.

Guests dressed up in homemade hats to celebrate the occasion and enjoyed music and singing from Bill Dukes and games for all the family

Children took part in the sports day games, which started off with a sprinting race.

Valerie Barnes, a member of the Village Hall committee who organised the event, said: "It's great to get the village together and we're really lucky to have interested people who organise it and have fun.

"The money raised at the event helps cover our costs at the village hall"

Still undecided about where to study in September? Places still available at The Woodroffe School Sixth Form

I stayed at Woodroffe because I know everyone and feel safe. I took part in clubs, team sports and jazz band and wanted to continue with the many extra-curricular activities here. This year I'm part of the 45 mile Ten Tors Team and run with the cross country

Having previously aspired to come to Woodroffe for 6th Form, I made the decision to stay at my current school. After three days in their 6th form I knew it wasn't for me and made the decision to start at Woodroffe. I was welcomed with open arms by students and staff and quickly became involved. I sing with the choir, do lots of sport and have joined the French exchange.

The Woodroffe School is:

- A high attaining academic institution
- A National Teaching School
- A Cultural Education Lead School
- •Ofsted 'outstanding' for the quality of Teaching

I came to Woodroffe from another school and struggled to keep up with my A levels but with the help of Mrs Cropp, the 6th form librarian, I'm managing quite well. The students made me welcome and the social life is good.

Vintage rally pulls

HUNDREDS of engine enthusiasts gathered in Bridport for two days of machines, steam engines and vintage vehicles.

The 39th annual West Dorset Vintage Tractor and Stationary Engine Rally returned to the West Bay showground earlier this month, bringing back memories of yesteryear.

The showground was filled with steam and stationary engines, vintage motorcycles, cars and tractors, trade stalls and fun fair rides.

Demonstrations were also on show for visitors from local thatcher Dave Simmons alongside blacksmith and wood turning displays.

Loric Collins, president of the West Dorset Vintage Tractor and Stationary Engine Club, said: "It went very well, there was a lot of people.

"We also presented a cheque to the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance for £500 raised from a ploughing match we hold each year.

"The morris dancers went down well, the kids enjoyed a tug of war with the young farmers on the Saturday morning.

"The weekend went according to plan, we had very good crowds, the weather was kind to us and we are looking forward to our 40th next year which I am sure will be a good one.

"All the members and committee members worked very hard to put on a good show for the public."

THE programme of events for this year's Bridport Hat Festival is underway with money now being raised towards a handful of specially-selected

A number of events have been planned in the town in the lead-up to the main festival day on Saturday, September 5th, and more than £120 has already been raised for Brain Tumour Research at a quiz hosted by the Ropemakers pub in West Street.

This year the programme of events includes the popular hat auction at the Bridport and West Dorset Club on Thursday, September 3rd, and the opening concert at the arts centre on Friday, September 4th, featuring Hank Wangford and his Lost Cowboys.

But there are also some new festival additions on Saturday, September 5th, such as the Mad Hatters Tea Party hosted by the Allington Hillbillies in Cooper's Field from 4pm and a Ceilidh run by Bridport Ceilidhs at St Mary's Church House Hall at 7.30pm.

On Sunday, September 6th, the Ropemakers will provide a Hatters Mad Lunch.

And as part of the Hat Festival build-up, organisers are holding a Hat Amnesty to collect hats at Snooks in West Street that people no longer want.

These will then go into the auction on Thursday, September 3rd.

Brian Atkinson, chair of the Hat Festival committee, said: "The Hat Amnesty has now been declared, so take your unwanted hats to the hat shop on West Street where they will be treated sympathetically and prepared for a new life after re-homing at the Hat Auction."

All the money raised during the festival - which was over £2,000 last year - will be given to the chosen charities, Brain Tumour research and The Brain Injury Rehabilitation Trust.

Stress can ruin your life

AND the worst of it is, the more stressed you feel the harder it is to do anything about it. So you get more stressed. So it affects your health, which makes everything even more difficult and adds more worries.

If you get too stressed, you can end up wearing yourself out. Feeling worse and worse... And helpless to break free.

Your mind is amazingly good at dealing with things for you automatically. It helps you keep going even in bad times. But sometimes it needs a bit of help.

Hypnotherapy can help.

Hypnotherapy can help in so many ways. To clear tensions and anxieties. To help you deal with things differently. To restore confidence and well-being. To boost your sense of self worth. And much much more.

Susan Gale, of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester, can use hypnotherapy and her years of experience to help you.

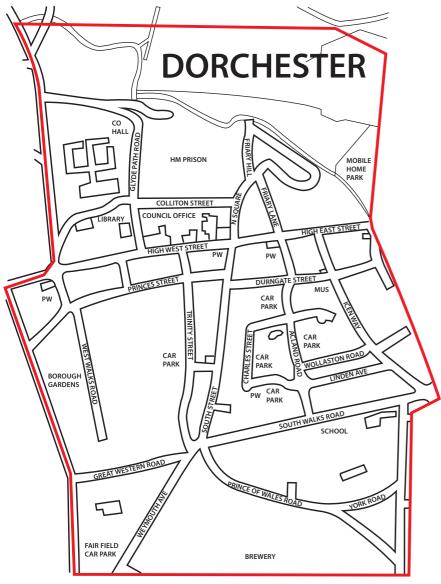

She has a very down to earth approach and always tailors the therapy to the person.

Susan has been working as a hypnotherapist since 1989 and has helped many people. Take a look at her website www.beltain.co.uk or phone 01305 267069 to see how she could help you.

New home birth team at Dorset County Hospital

A GROUP of five midwives at Dorset County Hospital have come together as a new team dedicated to supporting home births.

The Cygnet Home Birth Team – made up of Tara Putt, who is leading the service, Ali Fuszard, Ali Salmon, Karen Myers and Andrea Chrustawczuk – launched the new scheme at Abbotsbury Swannery last week.

The service will provide all the care needed before the birth, during labour and afterwards for women in their own home and is available to women living in the hospital's catchment area who have been assessed as low risk.

Home births have previously been available at Dorset County Hospital,

by Lottie Welch lottie@pemedia.co.uk

but the new scheme ensures women who want to have a home birth will know who will provide the care, rather than the midwives operating on an on-call basis.

Jo Hartley, head of midwifery at Dorset County Hospital, said: "I thought about doing it and at the same time Poole Hospital started it and Tara came to me with the idea.

"It is always something I wanted to do and Tara's enthusiasm has really started it.

"To have midwives of this quality in the team is great and we really couldn't do it without them and their understanding of safety and care.

"I think it is an absolutely wonderful idea, in times of austerity and the NHS issues, to launch the initiative is great.

"I am really proud to be associated with midwives of this quality and if I wasn't a midwife I would want to be part of a home birthing team."

Home birth rates for women attending Dorset County Hospital have fallen by half in recent years, from four per cent to two per cent, and the midwives want to reverse this trend.

Tara Putt, a midwife at Dorset County Hospital who is leading the scheme, said: "We now have a dedicated team of experienced midwives to look after women who chose to have a home birth.

"Proven statistics show it is safer for low risk mothers to give birth at home as they are less likely to have complications.

"We have always offered home birthing but now this dedicated team will give continuity, the mother will meet all of us and will know who is coming out when they give birth.

"It is amazing, we have been thinking about it for a while now and we hope to improve home birth rates, which are currently at two per cent, and we would like to see them at 10 per cent.

"If we manage to do that, it will be amazing."

BY THE SEASIDE: A West Dorset beach has been named among the nation's best secret seaside retreats.

The Daily Telegraph ranked Eype Beach in its list of the top 20 "hidden" beaches in the UK earlier this month.

Travel writers at the national newspaper said

Eype was the go-to spot for "waterside seclusion" and an unexpected find on the South West Coast Path.

The beach featured alongside some of the region's other hidden gems, with Worbarrow Bay, in Purbeck, and Moor Sands, in South Devon, also named on the list.

Say 'I do' to budget bridal style

By Katie Wright, Press Association

The average wedding now costs a whopping £20,000, according to Time Out magazine. That's a £6,000 rise over the last 10 years - and, furthermore, a survey by Brides magazine revealed the average spend on a wedding dress alone is £1,340.

But what if your budget doesn't stretch to those great heights, or you simply don't want to spend a fortune on a dress you'll wear once? Thankfully, the high street's bridal-wear selections are better than ever, offering serious style AND value for money.

If you're looking for something fairly traditional - that is, a dress that's pale and falls past the knee - but don't want to uphold the tradition of breaking the bank in the process, these are your best bridal bets...

Bridal Budget: Under £400

Popular with celebs Stateside, occasionwear designer Adrianna Papell also has a glamorous bridalwear range that's stocked at John Lewis. Even the most detailed gowns, embellished with diamante or crafted from oodles of ivory chiffon, don't go higher than the £400 mark with some well under that, making Papell your go-to if you're looking for a dramatic dress at a cool price.

Likewise, frock specialist Damsel In A Dress this season carries a trio of floor-length bridal gowns that will hold their own against even the most striking backdrop.

Bridal Budget: Under £300

Ghost has a selection of 11 satin dresses in beautiful, vintage-inspired shapes that can be dyed to order in four weeks, with prices ranging from £195 (for slightly shorter styles) to £275 (for long-sleeved and floor-skimming styles). Of the dye options, the lvory, Oyster and Silver Lake shades fit on the traditional wedding colour wheel, and there's a style to suit every body shape.

For something a little more relaxed, the Brigitte Bardot collection at La Redoute has a couple of dresses that boho brides will love.

The strapless bustier dress, with its gorgeous gathered front and long, dipped-hem train is enough to make anyone want to elope to the Caribbean for a barefoot beach wedding.

Bridal Budget: Under £200

They don't actually come with the bridal prefix, but Coast's host of long, white dresses are more than altar-appropriate.

From the full-skirted floral Lucianna to the lace-topped Lori Lee, these dresses are unfailingly feminine, but they'll still leave you with change from £200.

Similarly, ASOS is packed with wedding-worthy gowns from brands like Jarlo, Fame and Partner and Forever Unique, as well as the site's own bridal line.

With a younger customer in mind, some are a little on the skimpy side, but if you filter your search results by style (maxi dress) and colour (white or cream), you'll find lots of wearable options.

Bridal Budget: Under £100

Even supermarkets have got in on the 'I do' action, with Tesco this year stocking an £80 wedding gown. Floor-skimming and lace-covered with sweet cap sleeves, it's a bridal bargain that's not to be sniffed at. BHS offers more choice with more than a dozen wedding dresses this season, and shorter styles will set you back around £95.

But the best bang for you buck can be found online at sites like Little-Mistress.com, where nude and cream maxi dresses with floral applique details are soft and pretty (without being prissy), and all fall well below the £100 mark.

Get The Look

Wedding hats. As much as we love them, they're generally all very similar, and you don't get much use out of them the rest of the year, do you? Enter Yosuzi, the Venezuelan milliner new to the team at upscale retailer Salt. As seen on the glamorous guests at the latest Salt store opening, these sleek straw hats are formal enough for weddings, but not so feather and flower-covered that you can't wear them all summer long.

New initiative to help carers

HARDWORKING carers in Bridport are to benefit from a new health and wellbeing initiative led by Dorset County Council.

Health checks are being made available to help carers identify what support they need in their daily life.

A questionnaire is being displayed in GP surgeries, pharmacies and libraries as part of a drive to help vulnerable carers.

Answering a range of questions, the carers can assess their emotional and physical health and decide whether there is any action that needs to be taken. It is thought that some carers may benefit from joining local carers' support groups and, in some cases, see their local GPs for extra support.

Song for Paul this weekend

THE third annual concert to raise money for Weldmar Hospicecare Trust takes place this weekend.

A Song for Paul is a free event held in Ocean Bathrooms' car park behind Waitrose, raising funds in memory of Bridport resident Paul Wicken, who was diagnosed with cancer and died in 2013, aged just 36.

Paul worked for Ocean Bathrooms for over five years and the event has raised over £3,000 in the past two years.

The day will feature non-stop music from Shiraz, Tinkers Cuss, Acoustic Rooster and Barn Street. There will also be cakes, stalls and lucky dips.

The concert will take place this Saturday (June 27th) from 10am to 4.30pm.

A Just Giving page has also been set up for donations at www.justgiving.com/asongfor paul3

Councillor Jill Haynes, cabinet member for adult social care at Dorset County Council, said: "All too often when people take on a caring role they are faced with difficult decisions and challenges - managing the daily routines for someone who is unable to cope independently, having to give up hobbies and interests due to lack of time and coping with the impact on family life of caring for friends or relatives.

"With an ageing population and an increasing number of people with at least one long-term health condition, the number of carers over the age of 65 is expected to increase by 35 per cent over the next 10 years."

Cllr Haynes added that Dorset County Council wants to offer the right support so that carers feel valued and not alone as they continue to provide unpaid care.

The announcement comes during National Carers Week - an annual campaign to highlight the challenges carers face and recognise the contribution they make to families and communities throughout the UK.

This year the campaign is hoping to make communities more carer-friendly by ensuring that, if a carer is unpaid, local services and systems will remove obstacles and make sure things are done differently.

Examples of services and systems doing things differently might include an employer creating Carer Friendly policies by listening to the experiences of their workforce, or a GP practice offering alternative appointment times to carers unable to attend due to their caring responsibilities.

For more information and advice visit www.mylifemycare.com or call the Adult Access Team on 01305 221016 and to find out more about National Carers Week, visit www.carersweek.org.

Crackdown on cyber crime

POLICE are launching a new campaign to crack down on fraud and cyber crime, as part of the force's Neighbourhood and Home Watch Week.

The initiative aims to build bridges between officers and members of the public, in an effort to reduce crime and tackle anti-social behaviour through neighbourhood watch schemes.

Community-led events will be taking place all over Dorset this week, with a crime prevention display in Bucky Doo Square this morning (Wednesday).

The campaign follows figures released by the force showing that Dorset residents lost more than £1million to phone fraudsters in the last year.

Tackling cyber crime is also on the agenda during the week, with officers providing tips and tricks for staying safe online. Helen Brittan, head of the force's volunteers strategy project, said: "Neighbourhood and Home Watches form the largest volunteer organisation in Dorset and they demonstrate community action at its best in helping to keep Dorset safe.

"Dorset Police supports watches wholeheartedly in their role and this week highlights the vital volunteering work being undertaken by schemes."

Radio and life writing skills workshop

Aspiring writers are being given the opportunity to create work for a worldwide audience through a two-day workshop.

Writing Life in Sound will take place at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday July 4th and Sunday July 5th.

Led by BBC writer and producer Paul Dodgson, participants will develop both 'life-writing' and radiowriting skills.

Through the course, members will create a show of new life writing that will be made available to a world-wide audience through the arts centre's website as a downloadable podcast.

Life writing can include biography, autobiography, memoirs, diaries, journals, first-hand accounts and oral testimony.

Paul Dodgson said: "You don't need anything in advance, just arrive with an open mind, your voice and a desire to explore stories from your life."

The course on the Saturday will be held at the Chapel in the Garden on East Street and the Sunday course at Bridport Arts Centre.

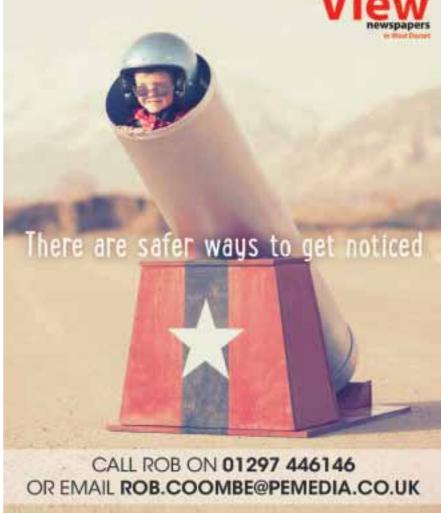

Tickets are £58 for both days and are available from www.bridport-arts.com or at the arts centre box office.

A maximum of 12 places are available.

CRANBERRIES LUXURY HIDEAWAY

Pulman's girls pampered from head to toe!

6 I don't often go to spas and felt a little self-concious but

Jessica and her team put me completely at ease; they were

Pulman's sales executive Jemma Moore

so professional and enthusiastic.

YSELF and a few of the other Pulman's View girls were lucky enough to exchange a usual day in the office for a luxury spa break at Cranberries Hideaway in Kilmington last week.

Although we tried to convince our colleagues this was no "jolly" and was "strictly for work purposes only", it was hard to even believe ourselves as we sank into the relaxing bubbles of the hot tub, sipped on Prosecco and let the stresses of work fade away with our spa treatments.

I had never been to Cranberries before but had heard lots of good reports from friends and family. and I was not disappointed as we pulled into the renovated 18th century dairy farm and soaked in the stunning views of the rolling East Devon coun-

Set in over 100 acres of private land, owner Steve Littley and general manager Verity Charles have renovated the stone barns at Cranberries to create selfcatering and bed and breakfast accommodation of the highest standards, as well as a wedding venue with unrivalled views of the area and luxury honey-

SPA DAY REVIEW By Francesca Evans

Steve and Verity greeted us with a warm welcome before giving us a tour of the site, and we were spoilt for choice when it came to picking our rooms for that night, each beautifully decorated with comfy beds, modern en suite bathrooms and some even with their own free-standing bathtubs in the bedrooms.

To top it off, Cranberhas recently opened its Hideaway Spa offering a wide range of treatments high quality brands, including Elemis, the leading British spa and skincare brand; Crystal Clear skin rejuvination technology; Jane Iredale mineral makeup; St Tropez tan-

As well as favourite spa and beauty treatments, the Hideaway Spa incudes a jacuzzi bath and steam showers for individual use and will soon be branching out into more specialist treatments, such as laser hair and tattoo removal.

Spa manager Jessica and her team showed real enthusiasm for their work and spoke passionately about the products used. Their professionalism, expertise and the relaxing atmosphere put us completely at ease.

In the morning, we were each treated to a stress-busting back massage and a refreshing facial using the delightfully-fragranced Elemis range and, after tucking into a delicious buffet lunch and one (or two!) more glasses of Prosecco, it was back to the spa for manicures and pedicures leaving us completely pampered from

After all that hard work it was time to chill out in one of Cranberries' many hot tubs and time seemed to slip away as we looked out over the surrounding countryside - a view you just cannot get bored of. Eventually we pulled ourselves away for dinner before a peaceful night's sleep.

The hot tubs are a favourite feature for visiting hen parties, which have quickly become a specialty of Cranberries thanks to the flexible range of special activities on offer, meaning each party can be tailored to suit every type of "hen".

The rural getaway – with accommodation ranging from rooms for individuals, couples or families up to renovated barns sleeping 16 - has also become a popular destination for larger corporate parties and, of course, is now one of the favourite wedding venues of the area.

And Cranberries' success is surely only set to soar further as renovation continues with plans to further expand the spa facilities and open a restaurant with hearty, homemade meals as its staple.

So if you're looking for a quick beauty fix or a head to toe makeover, there can be few finer settings for a relaxing day out than Cranberries Luxury Hide-

THREE comedians, fresh from the Edinburgh Fringe, will be at the Bridport Electric Palace Comedy Network on Friday, June 26th.

They are Paul McCaffrey, Ray Peacock and Glenn Moore.

Paul McCaffrey is a stand-up comedian and comic actor who can be seen in two series of the BBC3 prank show, Impractical Jokers, starring alongside Roisin Conaty, Joel Dommett and Marek Larwood.

As a stand-up, Paul quickly established himself on the circuit with his incredibly likeable, 'everyman' persona, winning both The London Paper and the Latitude Festival new act competitions. Paul will be taking his fourth solo stand up show, Paul or Nothing, to the Edinburgh Festival in 2014

Paul has filmed the stand-up spot on Russell Howard's Good News (BBC3) and is a regular guest on Extra Time (talk-SPORT). He has also done studio warmup for The Morgana Show (Channel 4) and That Sunday Night Show (ITV 1) and can currently be seen at some of the best comedy clubs in the country.

Ray Peacock has established himself as one of the most popular compères, headline performers and TV warm-up acts on the circuit, with Chortle Award Nominations in the best compere and best internet show categories.

It was as part of the highly successful Big And Daft comedy trio that Ray first came to prominence, enjoying a BBC London radio series, three consecutive years of sell-out Edinburgh Festival shows and their own series for the BBC's Play UK, Terrorville.

As a highly sought after warm up act, amongst many other shows, Ray has provided regular warm up for Russell Howard's Good News, Red Dwarf, Not Going Out, That Sunday Night Show, Miranda, The IT Crowd, Friday Night With Jonathan Ross, The Graham Norton Show, French & Saunders, Lee Mack's All Stars and Al Murray's Compete for the Meat.

Comedy trio at the Palace

In 2014, Ray appeared in his solo show Here Comes Trouble at Edinburgh

Within his first 10 gigs, Glenn Moore was a finalist in So You Think You're Funny? and a runner-up in the Chortle Student Comedy Awards. Since then, he's gone on to regularly perform across the UK, for the likes of Jongleurs, Off The Kerb and Komedia. At the 2014 Edinburgh Fringe, he was part of the prestigious AAA Stand-Up Late showcase

Glenn is also one half of the criticallyacclaimed sketch comedy duo Thunderbards, who had a sell-out run at the Edinburgh Fringe in 2014, as well as a show at the Fringe the previous year voted one of GQ's Top Ten Funniest Shows at the Fringe.

Outside of comedy, Glenn is a newsreader for radio stations across the country, including Capital FM, Classic FM, XFM, Heart, Smooth, Sky News Radio and LBC. He also regularly appears on London Live's Evening News, and the Evening Show.

Two orchestras combine forces

IT SAYS much for the lively arts scene in Bridport that it has produced not one, but two chamber orchestras. For many years the Allington Strings and Bridport Chamber Orchestra have been running side by side, and now they even share a conductor in Arturo Serna. The orchestras are joining forces for a concert on Saturday, July 4th in St Mary's Church in Bridport. The programme includes music to appeal to all tastes; Pachelbel's famous Canon and Gigue and Bach's Art of Fugue, Mozart's glorious Clarinet Concerto, Sibelius' romantic Andante Festivo and music from Latin America by Aldemaro Romero.

After the original soloist for the Mozart concerto had to pull out, we have been lucky enough to secure the services of Joseph Shiner, one of the best young clarinet players in the country. Joseph began studying at Wells Cathedral School, achieved a Double First Class Honours in Music at Cambridge and completed postgraduate studies at the Royal Academy. He has gone on to a busy career playing with orchestras and ensembles across the country and in the USA, has won numerous awards and made his London solo debut at St Martin in the Fields in 2013.

Tickets are £10 from the Bridport Music Centre and Book Shop and on the door and include wine and cheese; students have free entry.

Fabergé: A Life of its Own

BRIDPORT Arts Centre is hosting a captivating new film that tells the fascinating story behind the most prestigious name in luxury: Fabergé.

Fabergé: A Life of Its Own charts the rich history behind the iconic luxury brand, from the monumental rise of 'artist jeweller' Peter Carl Fabergé in the 19th Century to the enduring legacy of Fabergé today. The film features unque, access to two historic new pieces - the first new creation in almost 100 years, and a recently discovered lost treasure.

The Imperial Egg, long believed to be lost until its surprise discovery by a scrap metal dealer last year, will be revealed to the public for the very first time, having already been sold privately for an estimated $30 million.

The first 'Imperial Class' Egg produced for 99 years. The Pearl Egg, commissioned to mark 100 years since the production of the last Imperial Egg for . Tsar Nicolas II, will be unveiled to audiences in exquisite close-up detail. A spectacular objet d'art, it features over 3,000 diamonds and natural pearls.

Baroque supergroup at the Electric Palace

BAROQUE supergroup L'Orchestre du Mont-Plaisant bring their world rhythms to Bridport's Electric Palace on Wednesday, July 15th.

Based in London since 2011, ODMP brings together world rhythms and moody cinematic moments playing blues and dance pieces, with notable influences from Congolese soukous, African highlife, Ethiopian jazz, cumbia and a whiff of Middle-East and Turkish psychedelia.

They have recorded sessions for Cerys Matthews on Radio 6 and were featured on Fiona Talkington's Late Junction on Radio 3, Gideon Coe's Radio 6 show, Tom Ravencroft on Radio 6 and Jo Whiley on Radio 2. They are regulars on Resonance Fm, SOAS radio and have been featured in French music and culture magazine Gonzai.

They toured extensively throughout England, Germany, France, Italy, Slovenia, Hungary, Montenegro, Croatia, Serbia, Spain, Holland, Belgium. They shared stages with the likes of Kubata Makoto, Hype Williams, Imperial Tiger Orchestra, The Experimental Tropic Blues Band and Talibam! among others.

They recently worked as artists in residence in Germany making music for theatre and collaborating with local musicians as part of New Hamburg Festival, commissioned by Deutsches Shauspiel-Haus.

Their new album Orchestre Du Mont-Plaisant II came out on May 29 on Polychrome Sounds.

L'Orchestre du Mont-Plaisant play at the Electric Palace on Wednesday, July 15th. Doors open 7pm, with music from 8pm. Tickets are £10 plus booking fee in advance, or £12 on the door. # The World's No.1 Michael Jackson tribute comes to Weymouth

GET READY to moonwalk the night away with the world's No.1 Michael Jackson performer! King Of Pop – The Legend Continues is currently on tour in the UK and is set to take the Weymouth Pavilion by storm when it appears there on Sunday, June 28th.

The production is led by tribute artist 'Navi' who is without question the leading and most successful Michael Jackson tribute artist on the planet. A claim that is backed up by Navi's incredible list of achievements that have been chalked up in a glittering career spanning over two decades in 57 different countries.

Navi's career highlight came in 2003 when he was invited to perform at Michael Jackson's 45th birthday party in Los Angeles. Michael not only applauded Navi but went on to give him a standing ovation and thumbs up. This was an incredible moment for Navi which was captured on film.

"To meet Michael was one thing, but to perform in front of the greatest entertainer of all time and to perform his songs was no easy feat and extremely nerve-wracking." Said Navi.

Unbeknown to Navi, the 'personal' highlight of his career was to come only the following day when he was invited to visit Michael's home, Neverland - a surreal experience for the visited Michael's cinema, zoo, went on a few of his theme park rides and had a barbeque on the grounds. This memory will always be one of Navi's most precious.

The relationship continued and over a period of many years Navi was frequently hand-picked by Michael to work for him in several different ways.

This included coming out of hotels as a decoy to distract waiting fans and press whilst Michael quietly slipped out the back exit. Navi was also hired for promotions of his forthcoming tours and album launches.

Since Michael's death, Navi has continued to work alongside the Michael Jackson Estate and in January 2010 he performed to a sell-out London O2 Indigo audience. The same venue where the "This Is It" concerts sadly never took place. Navi has been touring internationally ever since in his world renowned production King Of Pop – The Legend Continues.

The show also features an incredibly talented live band and dancers who assist Navi in brilliantly recreating all the magical classics from the early Jackson 5 songs to the mega-hits such as Thriller and Smooth Criminal.

For a great night of entertainment suitable for the whole family, be sure to catch Navi in King Of Pop – The Legend Continues, Sunday, June 28th at the Weymouth Pavilion, The Esplanade, Weymouth, Dorset, DT4 8ED. The show starts at 7.30pm. Tickets can be purchased through the venue box office on 01305 783225 or online at www.kingofpoptour.com.

Grab Some Sexagenarian Action With The Independent's Agony Aunt

Virginia Ironside

PUT that Saga booking on hold and grab a bit of sexagenarian action with agony aunt Virginia Ironside when she presents her latest show Growing Old Disgracefully at Bridport Arts Centre.

Virginia is an agony columnist for the Independent and writes for the Oldie. She's written two books celebrating being a sexagenarian and this show does just that.

The show arose from of performing at literary festivals to publicise her book, No! I Don't Want to Join a Bookclub!, but now, a few years later, her next book has come out, No! Don't Need Reading Glasses! And she's still Directed by Nigel Planer who played Neil in the Young ones, this "grannie stand-up" premiered at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe three years ago, and last year (2012) she did another stint at Edinburgh to sell-out audiences. She's been touring ever since.

In this show she'll explains why unlimited free drugs, fun funerals, grandchildren and sex - or, even better, no sex - make the sixties the best (and funniest) time of your life. Come along and hear some funny personal anecdotes, heartfelt tales from her life, and share with Virginia what marvellous fun get-

Virginia Ironside appears at Bridport rts Centre this Saturday, June 27th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 or £10 from Bridport Arts Centre box office 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com

STARTING out as the band behind Ian Dury, the Blockheads are a legendary outfit that has grown in stature from the early days of the Stiff tour in 1977, right up to the present day. Backing up Ian Dury's poetic lyrics, this is the band that brought you 'Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick', 'What a Waste', 'Reasons to be Cheerful - Part 3', and 'Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll', among many others.

Rarely off the road since the demise of lan Dury in 2000, but now with Derek Hussey fronting the band, the Blockheads are still one of the most underrated British bands of all time, with a legion of fans of all ages.

Their new album, 'Same Horse Different Jockey', was released on 23rd November 2013, which was also the 35th anniversary of the release of 'Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick', and continues to show both their diversity and supreme quality, as well as showcasing their uniqueness.

Derek Hussey's lyrics in the bands new songs keep the combination of poetry, word play, earthy humour and deadly-accurate observations of everyday, British working-class life, that Ian Dury had perfected, but with an added bite for the 21st century.

Derek 'The Draw' Hussey is known to the bands followers as Dury's best friends and minder, memorably singing with lan and the band at a televised concert in the late 90s.

As well as through their own new material, inter est in "Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll", the recent biopic of their erstwhile front man lan Dury, the performance of 'Spasticus Autisticus' at the 2012 Para-Olympic Opening Ceremony, and the musical 'Reasons To be Cheerful', has seen a resurgence in the bands popularity over the past couple of years and they continue to go from strength to strength.

Along with some new material you can expect to hear "Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick", "Wake Up And Make Love With Me", "Reasons To Be Cheerful (Part 3)", "What A Waste", "Clevor Trever", "Sweet Gene Vincent" and many more from the illustrious back cat aloque.

The Blockheads are fronted by Derek 'The Draw Hussey, and Chaz Jankel, Norman Watt-Roy, John Turnbull and Mick Gallagher still remain from the original band. The current line-up is augmented by John Roberts on drums and a rolling line up of saxophonists that includes Gilad Atzmon, Terry Edwards and Dave Lewis.

The Blockheads play at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Thursday, July 23rd at 8pm. To book tickets or for more details call box office on 01305 266 926 or visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

308 GTi by Peugeot Sport: The Car For Thrill-Seekers

EVER since the acclaimed PEUGEOT 308 was voted 'European Car of the Year', enthusiasts have been asking one question - when will the Brand launch a more extreme performance-oriented 'hot hatch' version following recent sportier GT Line and GT models?

Now we can welcome ..... the 308 GTi by PEUGEOT SPORT.

Powered by a highly-efficient 1.6-litre THP Stop&Start (S&S) petrol engine and extensively developed by PEUGEOT SPORT, this latest PEUGEOT GTi is offered in two versions with 250hp and 270hp outputs both delivering impressive performance. Inspired by a rich PEUGEOT pedigree in GTi models, the 308 GTi has been developed to have a capable chassis that produces top-level road holding and driving pleasure, with fun and ultimate performance enhanced by the Torsen® limited-slip differential equipping the 270hp model.

The clean lines of the modern exterior style takes the Brand's now-familiar design language in a more assertive and contemporary direction. Inside, the PEUGEOT i-Cockpit cabin has been enhanced to reflect the sporting nature of the car, with additional detailing to signify this performance flagship.

Exhibiting exceptional dynamic prowess was the number one goal during development, but the Brand's reputation for classleading environmental credentials has not been sacrificed. The powerplant is the most efficient in its sector, with CO2 emissions of just 139g/km and fuel economy of 47.1mpg impressive numbers for such a capable and sports-oriented model.

A stunning and purposeful exterior

From the very beginning, PEUGEOT knew that designing the most radical model in its range, then creating a top class driving experience for a particularly demanding set of enthusiastic-driving customers was a tall order. Rising to the challenge required a development team infused with a passion for performance and the obvious solution was to challenge the experts: PEUGEOT SPORT engineers, with a wealth of international expertise in the field of motor sport and top

The visual enhancements they have made to create the 308 GTi by PEUGEOT SPORT are obvious from every angle. Boasting exclusive styling front and rear, the car sits 11 millimetres lower to the ground than the stan-The nose features full LED headlamps, flanking a new black radiator grille with a horizontal chequered pattern and gloss-black finishing. The same motif is echoed on the air intake, which is surrounded by sequential LED indicators and a red detail strip (chrome on Ultimate Red cars). Below the bumper, two front spoilers boost aerodynamic performance.

In profile, the redesigned door sills hint at the car's aggressive nature, while the sleek new rear design features a gloss-black section housing the twin exhaust pipes. The GTi signature of the car is clearly visible on the front wings and tailgate.

Mercedes-Benz GLC: An SUV That Fits The Bill To Perfection

THE second generation of the mid-range SUV from Mercedes-Benz goes by the name of GLC and represents a big step forward on several fronts: On a technical level the new SUV clearly makes its mark with the excellent standard of safety that is a brand hallmark, featuring state-of-the-art assistance systems and outstanding energy efficiency. Fuel consumption has been cut by up to 19 per cent in comparison to the previous model. At the same time, the AIR BODY CONTROL multi-chamber air suspension that is without parallel in this segment, the extended range of DYNAMIC SELECT dynamic transmission modes and the 4MATIC permanent allwheel drive increase not only the ride comfort, but also the vehicle's sporty agility – whatever surface it is driving on. Visually, the body follows the clear and sensual design idiom which was demonstrated so successfully by the GLC Coupé showcar concept in the spring, and which serves as the standard for future SUV families.

"Our new GLC represents a further, systematic step in the implementation of our successful SUV philosophy. It combines the ultimate in driving comfort with a sporty touch, impresses on the road and – more than ever – off it as well, and appeals to the eye with the new design and equipment line," says Thomas Weber, member of the Management Board of Daimler AG and responsible for Group Research and Mercedes-Benz Cars Development.

The design philosophy behind the new GLC essentially favours sensual purity and a modern aesthetic over the classic off-road look. The dynamic design exudes emotional appeal while also employing purist forms. Surfaces embodying a degree of tension and precise lines cite the clear design line followed by all state-of-the-art SUVs from Mercedes-Benz. The GLC only represents a departure from its progenitor – the G-Ćlass – in terms of appearance, however. On a technical level it sets new benchmarks in all disciplines – the mid-size SUV's offroad capabilities remain as outstanding as ever.

The characteristic SUV front with a short, succinct overhang, upright, three-dimensional radiator grille with a twin louvre and centrally positioned brand star follows the successful new design line. Striking headlamps, optionally available as LED High Performance lamps, lend the GLC a self-confident look which is further empha-sised by their distinctive night design. The bumpers with integrated underguard come in three variants; in addition to the base version there is a version optimised for off-road use with a larger angle of approach/departure, plus a particularly sporty AMG variant.

The side view showcases the almost coupé-liké greenhouse, which together with the 118 millimetres larger wheelbase lends the GLC an elegant long profile. This impression is further reinforced by the gently sloping dropping line which is a hallmark of the brand and by the powerful shoulders. The rising lower feature line also enlivens the vehicle's side view. Matt black cladding in the wings, wheels up to a size of 50.8 cm (20 inches) and the optional side running board provide clear indications of the GLC's off-road credentials.

BRIDPORT Gig Rowing Club played host to last weekend's gig rowing competition, held at West Bay, which saw three of the area's clubs land a podium finish.

A packed harbour saw the event get under way with the youth section racing in a very challenging sea, which produced more white water as the afternoon progressed.

Bridport's squad continued their good form, winning this event with Lyme making it across the line in 4th behind Brixally increasing in strength, the Ladies A category proved to be a tougher race than was anticipated which the Lyme girls completed in a creditable 7th place.

Conditions were the same for the Men's A category, Lyme. in Black Ven, were embroiled in a constant battle with neighbours Bridport and Brixham, with Bridport holding off Lyme to win with Brixham third.

At this point in the afternoon, there was a pattern emerging with Weymouth, Lyme, Bridport and Swanage all in with a chance of winning overall.

All the Ladies B teams made an impressive start in waters that were starting to ease. Maintaining a healthy position in the early stages, the Lyme girls rounded the final marker to head for home, finishing fourth.

In the Men's B race Brixham got to the first marker just ahead of Lyme and Weymouth. The Devon club stretched their lead on the way home, with the final positions staying

This battle was to continue going into the Ladies C race where once again, all the teams rattled the woodwork at the drop of the flag to ensure their stroke was at its most effective. Midway around it was anyone's race but Brixham pulled out a commanding lead to finish first with Lyme fin-

Lyme's entered two teams in the Men's C race, and it looked as though the A choice could claim the race in the early stages fighting hard with Bridport and Weymouth. However it was Bridport who finally broke away cross the line first, followed by Lyme and Weymouth, with the second crew, which included Bruce Kahn competing in only his second event and Phil Hayward in his first, rowing a controlled race to finish fifth.

With only four races to go, not one team looked as though they were going to seal an overall victory.

The Ladies Veterans had to settle for fifth behind winners Weymouth who eventually finished ahead of Brixham, Lyme

The penultimate race was the Men's Supervet's category and Lyme emerged from the blocks at a terrific pace leading until the home straight but had to settle for second when Weymouth crept past them with Portland third. A second Lyme crew including the two newcomers finished fourth.

In the last race for mixed crews saw Weymouth, Lyme and Brixham take the lead and hold their positions until the line Overall result; 1st Weymouth, 2nd Lyme Regis, 3rd (joint)

Bridport juniors swoop to success at Swanage

BRIDPORT Gig Rowing Club enjoyed more success at SWANAGE REGATTA held on Sunday 13th June

The day began with a huge win from the juniors, who were victorious in the under 16s race which involved one 200 metre sprint and one longer race with Bridport, rowing the in the gig 'Blaez' winning both.

The crew was made up of four Bridport juniors and two juniors from Clevedon. Joshua Hamblett-Edwards, a member of the junior crew com-the start we found out that we were borrowing two juniors from the winning U14s team so we were quite confident.

"We won our first race and we were ahead for the whole of the second

The junior crew was; Ella (Clevedon in position 6), Archie (Clevedon in 5), Oliver Day (4), Dominic Day (3), Ben Blackburn (2), Joshua Hamblett-EdB and Ladies A all secured 5th places

Meanwhile the Men's vets and C teams came 6th and the B team fourth. The last race of the day was the Men's A with Bridport coming 3rd.

The adult races were over a longer, three stroke side turn course, of which the last two legs were into a strong headwind.

These results left Bridport in fourth

TUESDAY'S training session started taking to their Picos singlehanded and completing a triangular course for their first race.

They were joined by instructors with students of the beginners group in Wayfarers, quite an achievement after only three previous sessions on the water this season due to strong winds causing cancellations.

The flat waters and consistent wind direction helped, but as the breeze died off the second race led to attempts to keep the boats moving in very light airs.

With PJ and two safety boats in attendance, Senior Instructor Grahame Forshaw said he was pleased with the progress which has been made and is looking forward to more favourable conditions to come which will keep the momentum

There is the possibility of extra sessions being added to the programme to make up for those man, R Hobbs 10-19. missed.

As they stand A view from Third Man - The Dorset cricket scene

Experienced Fitzgerald guides Dorch home

helped guide Dorchester to their second Premier Division win of the season, but there was disappointment for Weymouth who remain bottom without a win after they were dismissed by Stalbridge for just 46.

> Dorset Funeral Plan League Premier Division DORCHESTER 187-7 BEAT PARLEY 186-9 BY 3 WICKETS

DORCHESTER won their just their second game of the season with a three wicket win over high flying Parley.

Chasing a challenging 188 to win, a half century from the evergreen Sean Fitzgerald and 44 from captain Simon Mitchem saw them recover from a precarious start to win with eight balls and three wickets to spare.

Parley having won the toss and deciding to bat, lost Hewetson early on to a great overhead catch by Steve Clifford off James Dunham (1-

But solid knocks from Cridpand (28), Alex Nippard (37), Trueman (19) and Markham (23) put them in a strong position at 148-4.

However, some tight bowling from spinners Rob Waite (2-29) and George Foot (1-34) and two late wickets from Tom Blair (2-51) and Mitchem (2-38) restricted the visitors to 187-7.

Dorchester lost Pete Phillips (11) and Steve Clifford for a duck to stand 28-2 and with Marcus Evans (7) run out on 51-3, the game looked in the balance, but a fourth wicket stand of 71 between Fitzgerald (50) and Mitchem, and a further partnership of 37 with Waite (11) put them in the box seat.

When Mitchem was trapped lbw by a ball that stayed low on 176-6 and Nick Roe went for a duck on the same score, it was left to Dan Morris (15 no) to steer them home Mitchem was delighted with his team's efforts saying: "It was a great win and I was really pleased with how everyone played.

"We did drop one guy three times; which I wasn't best pleased about; but luckily we didn't pay for it in the end.

"We all bowled really well, and I think what did it for us was that we only conceded 45 runs off the last ten overs; the last 15 overs we really squeezed them.

"Sean (Fitzgerald) batted very well, and I was disappointed he didn't see it through to the

"He's got bags of experience and got a very mature head on his shoulders, and is worth his weight in gold in the team."

On his own batting performance he said: "I'm feeling good at the moment and batting well, I was a bit unlucky to get out to a half tracker ball that just rolled."

POOLE TOWN 189-9 BEAT MARTINSTOWN 153 ALL OUT BY 22 RUNS (REDUCED TARGET 175) MARTINSTOWN missing all rounder Liam Ban-

◆ MATURE INNINGS: Sean Fitzgerald's half century formed the foundation of Dorchester's win over Parley their target just too much in a rain interrupted game at Poole Park.

A half century from Brewster Surridge held Poole Town's innings together on a pretty fast track with lots of bounce where the wickets were shares around between the Martinstown bowlers as Poole reached 189-9 in their allotted

Heavy rain during tea saw the visitors target reduced to 175 off 42 overs, and Martinstown got off to a reasonable start as Ed Nichols and Steve Gerrity put on over 40 for the first wicket. The loss of a few cheap wickets was boosted by a stand of 65 between Tom Nicholls and Matt Camp who smote a huge six over mid-on to leave Martinstown requiring 42 off 14 overs with six wickets in hand.

However the tail couldn't deliver and Poole knocked them over for a 22 run victory.

Skipper Nichols accepted his side had come up short on the day on what was a tricky wicket, but was disappointed that the Poole tail scored more than he would have liked.

WEYMOUTH 46 ALL OUT LOST TO STALBRIDGE 47-1 BY 9 WICKETS

WEYMOUTH'S problems continue as they were dismissed by Stalbridge for just 46 at Redlands on Saturday.

Only opener Hayden Whyte showed any resistance as the experienced opening duo of Stuart Sweatman (5-34) and Steve Forshaw (3-8), and Simon Sweatman (2-3) swept through the home side in just 18 overs.

Stuart Sweatman then hit a quickfire 34 to put his side on the verge of victory which they achieved in just 5.4 overs.

County Division Two CATTISTOCK 190-9 BEAT

CRANBORNE 167 ALL OUT BY 23 RUNS

CATTISTOCK won an entertaining match in beating Cranborne, although they had to thank Martin Langford (4-27) to turn it their way in his

Chasing 191 the visitors were 123-2 with 25 overs gone, but the returning Langford took 4in three overs to leave them 135-5 and with Billy Walbridge picking up 3-32, Cattistock eased home by 23 runs.

Winning the toss, Cattistock lost Langford with eight on the board, but stands of 48 between Sam Baker (49) and Jon Legg (28) and Baker and Walbridge (36)m saw them 106-3.

But like Cranborne, they also had a mid-order collapse that saw them 153-7, but an eighth wicket stand of 23 between Jack Walklett (21no) and Bradley Damen (10) saw them post a respectable target of 190-9 which in the end proved decisive.

County Division Three STALBRIDGE 2ND 129-8 BEAT BEAMINSTER 128 ALL OUT BY 2 WICKETS

HOSTS Stalbridge 2nds edged a low scoring contest against Beaminster in a rain affected

Having won the toss, Beaminster started well with openers Rich Runyard (43) and Hugh Rathbone (39) sharing an opening stand of 74.

But after heavy rain, Runyard's dismissal triggered a collapse as batting conditions deterio-The wicket kept very low and deliveries skid-ded through which led to several cheap dismissals as the remaining nine wickets were lost for just 54 runs and Beaminster were bowled out for 128 in the 39th over. In reply, Stalbridge struggled against Baker

(2-31) and Everitt (1-15) who bowled with good pace and determination as they applied pressure early in the innings losing three wickets for

But crucially, catches were again spilled to relieve pressure as Stalbridge staged a recovery through Max Nettley who scored 61.

Ade Phillips bowled a superb spell of 3-16 to apply pressure, but after further rain delays the ball became increasingly wet and difficult to

Beaminster continued to battle but were powerless to prevent Matt Chant's 35 helping Stalbridge from reaching their target in the 29th over, their seventh win in their last eight

STURMINSTER MARSHALL 177-9 BEAT DORCHESTER 2ND 47 ALL OUT BY 130 RUNS verse when they were wll beaten at Sturminster

Batting first opener Simon Gardner scored a half century for the hosts, and with useful contributions from Ross Humphrey (29) and Will Gage (34no) they accumulated 177-9 despite 4-18 from Mike Peake and 3-33 from Josh Foot.

Dorchester never got to grips in reply with only Foot (17) getting into double figures as Henry Lockwood tore through their defences with 5-5 from five overs.

WAREHAM 118 ALL OUT LOST TO WЕУМОИТН 119-4 ВУ 6 WICKETS

A SUPERB piece of bowling from Ryan Sers saw Weymouth 2nds record just their second victory of the season and leapfrog their opponents at the bottom of the table.

Sers struck after the hosts had reached 70-1 by removing top score Martin Upshall for 46, and then mopped up another four victims to record a "fifer" with 5-26 from nine overs.

Tom Chedzoy then helped him skittle out the tail with 4-9 from just 16 balls; S Axon (22) and Reece Whitty (24no) the only batsmen able to

In reply Weymouth started in similar fashion with Tony Quayle (51) and Andy Jarvis (24) putting on 64 for the first wicket, and although Dominic Webb (4) went cheaply there was no capitulation as Quayle and Paul Webb (21no) took them within touching distance before winning by six wickets.

County Division Five CERNE VALLEY 2ND 153 ALL OUT LOST TO CHARLTON DOWN 301-6 BY 148 RUNS

THIS comprehensive victory was set up by a fantastic batting display from centurion Jae Miller and 89 from Kim Park.

Nick Voss and Miller had to play cautiously against the accurate opening bowling attack of Chris Smith and Craig Kellaway and could only muster 38-0 after ten overs.

However the surged as Miller launched into the change bowling finding the boundary with regularity as Voss farmed the strike to unleash

The pair put on 76 before Voss (16) was lbw to Tom Best (2-54). Sam Roles and Matt Stevens soon followed to leave the vistors on 93-3.

This brought Park to the wicket and their partnership of 79 pushed the game beyond Cerne Miller batted superbly to reach his century in only 88 balls including 12 fours and seven 6s, jumping on any ball which was short of a length or over pitched, before being bowled by young leg spinner Ben Simpson for an impressive 117. Not to be over shadowed Park took over the run fest, his 89 coming in only 65 balls and included some lovely cover drives and excellent running between the wickets.

Javed Gill(19) and Rob Rutter(19) both played supportive cameo innings to push the score pass the 300 mark before Park was run out off the last ball of the innings. Cerne Valley's reply was very solid with Tom Downey(15) and Craig Kellaway(22) playing each ball on its merits against the young bowling attack of Matt and Dan Stevens, and it was the latter who had Downey brilliantly caught one handed by Rutter at deep gully with the

The change of bowling saw Roles(3-43) strike twice in two balls and 51-3 soon became 75-5 when Javed Gill also struck twice removing the dangerous Kellaway well caught by Miller at mid on, and then bowling Tom Mercier. Gill also struck twice in his last over to return excellent bowling figures of 4-34.

Simon Green (29) decided the best form of defence was attack and produced some classical cover drives and pull shots before being well caught by the diving Miller.

Mark Homewood, making his Saturday debut bowled beautifully and his line outside off stump tempted Dave Baney and Park took another sharp catch in the slips, and Tom Hughes became his second victim as he was caught by Miller with the score on 119-9.

Best (16) opened his shoulders in his cameo innings to gain valuable batting points including two fours and a massive six to the mid wicket boundary and with young Matthew Webb added 34 for the last wicket.

Captain Pete Tucker said "We batted well and it was great to see Nick Voss settling into his first century of the season. "Kim Park produced his best innings for the Saturday team and controlled the middle and tail end of the innings with classical stroke play and exceptional running between the wickets."

MARTINSTOWN 2ND 217-7 BEAT Portland 2nd206-8 by 11 runs

A SUPERB 89 from Jack James was the key to Martinstown 2nds victory over Portland 2nds.

With useful contributions from Adam Kepple and Rob O'Brien, the hosts reached 217-7 in their allotted overs.

Wickets were shared around as Portland came close to snatching victory, but they fell 11 runs

Sunday Division Three DORSET INDIANS 215-5 BEAT SYMENE 214-4 BY 5 WICKETS

A CENTURY from Jon Legg couldn't prevent Symene from falling to Dorset Indians at Poole in an excellent game of cricket.

Winning the toss on what looked like a green wicket - but in fact was hard and bouncy - they quickly lost Nick Skyrme (2) but Legg with support from Phil Hawkins (21) and Liam Toohill (27) compiled a superb 100 before being caught with the score on 186-4.

Ollie Lee (26no) and Bradley Damen (18no) took the total to 214 at the end of their allotted Shanthan (29) and Adnan Butt (21) put on 50 for the first wicket in reply, but Damen (1-34), young Luke Robertson (1-34) and Legg (3-10) with his off-spinners from eight overs reduced the Indians to 108-5.

However Sunny Choudry (81no) and Jignesh (25no) took the hosts to victory with an unbeaten century partnership with six overs left.

BROADWINDSOR 193-5 BEAT CRANMORE 187 ALL OUT IN an exciting game that went to the wire, Broadwindsor got back to winning ways with victory over league leaders Cranmore.

Runs were shared around between all the batsmen with Richie Runyard top scoring with 45 not out, but solid contributions from Dean Hyett (35), Steve Phillips (23), Chris Park (21) and Jack Walklett (20) saw the host total 193-5.

Opening bowler Ross Baker was in fine form with the ball, taking 3-10 off eight overs includ-

Although up with the run rate, wickets fell regularly and there was a scare near the end when the opposition's No9 opened up with two 4s and a big six in a quickfire 20.

But Jack Walklett quelled their enthusiasm with 4-32 at the end of the innings.

Successful point-to-point season draws to a close

THE Wessex Point-to-Point Area's six main awards, sponsored by Spillers Horsefeeds, will be presented at the end of season party on Friday, July 3rd.

Leading gentleman rider is Somerset-based Will Biddick, who was also crowned National Champion for the fourth time at Saturday's Torrington Farmers meeting at Umberleigh, Devon, breaking the all time national record.

Biddick rode 68 winners this season, the majority provided by Henley, near Crewkerne, handler Jack Barber, 23, the country's leading trainer with 51 successes.

Both Jack and Will are runaway winners of two of the Wessex Area (Leading 10+ horses Trainer and Leading Gentleman Jockey respectively).

Quantocks-based trainer Teresa Clark takes the award for yards housing nine or fewer horses for the first time, with Chloe Newman and Keith Cumings hot on her heels. Teresa saddled eight winners in Wessex during the season, including a purple patch of five con-

Leading Lady Rider is Alice Mills, who has just announced her retirement from point-to-point racing to take out a professional jump and flat licence to ride under Rules.

Harry Cobden (16) who landed three National championships - the Fuller's Brewery National Mens Novice Riders title, the Dodson & Horrell Wilkinson Sword (for leading male novice under 21 rider) and the Harley Racing National novice riders' race championship – scooped the remaining two Awards.

He wins the Wessex Leading Novice Rider Award and the Wessex Leading Owner Award, largely thanks to his partnership with his own prolific Cock Of The Rock, a 10yo gelding with five of his seven wins in Wessex.

Cock Of the Rock is trained by Mosterton's Rachael Green, who netted the Connolly's Red Mills sponsored national award for yards with seven or fewer horses. Full details of the awards, plus
